We pick you up from your accommodation in Hobart @ 08:30am and drive to the summit of Mount Wellington, for fantastic views of the city and the Derwent River.

From the summit it is a picturesque drive through the Derwent Valley to National Park and the Mount Field Visitor Centre.

We visit the World famous Russell Falls then walk the “Tall Trees Circuit” which boasts the tallest flowering trees in the world, the Swamp Gum.

Following lunch we walk to Lady Barron Falls and finally the Lyrebird Nature Walk to cap of a great day of short introductory walks.

Day 2: Mount Field – Tarn Shelf Circuit [4 – 5 hours, 8km - Moderate]

The Tarn Shelf features glacial tarns and small lakes, one of which is Twilight Tarn. On the shore of Twilight Tarn, sits Tasmania’s 1st ski hut built in 1922.

The vegetation on this circuit walk is predominately deciduous beech [fagus], Pandani [the world’s tallest heath] and Snow Gums.

Today’s walk visits Mount Field East via Lakes Nicholls and Raynor and we are rewarded with great panoramic views from its summit.

Mid afternoon relax and enjoy the drive back to Hobart, arriving around 5pm.
